Interests

- Fitness & Sports: Basketball, volleyball, badminton, and pickleball keep me physically active and mentally sharp. I'm drawn to sports because they train both endurance and strategic thinking — and the competitiveness transfers directly into how I approach challenges at work.
- Continuous Learning: Gaining new knowledge genuinely excites me. Whether it's a new technology, a concept outside my field, or a skill I've never tried, I find real fulfillment in exploring and improving every day.
- Faith & Community: I'm an active member of a Christian community where I grow alongside like-minded people, grounded in values that shape how I treat others and show up in everything I do.
